COMING TO CITY

15 Societies Will Send 125
Official Delegates To
Two-Day Meet

A parade, starting at 12 o'clock
noon Monday will open the Transsylvania Saxon national convention which will be held in Salem Monday and Tuesday.

The parade will form at Railroad
st., proceed north on Depot st., continue through downtown streets and out McKinley, where it will counter-march and return by the same route.

The convention will be the largest in the order's history, and one of the largest ever held in Salem.
It was announced. Arrangements are being made to accommodate at least 2,500 visitors from other cities.

Following the parade luncheon will be served at 1 p. m. and a get-acquainted session held from then until 6 p. m., when dinner will be served. The entire morning program consists of the receiving of guests and visitors.

Mayor Will Lead Parade
Mayor Phil G. Hiddleston, who will also lead the parade, will give the welcome greetings to the convention in the evening's program.

Other speakers on the evening
program Monday will be Rev.
George Schuster, Columbus. Mrs.
Anna Schuster, president of the Salem society. Mrs. Susan Fronius, secretary of the local society. Rev.
B. E. Rutzky, Atty. H. L. McCarthy,
and John Bathies, of Erie. Pa., grand president of the national society.

Music will be furnished by the Male and Mixed Harmony choirs of Alliance, and the Salem Mannerchor. A dance will be held following the program at the German hall.

More than 45 men's and women's societies from throughout the country will be represented by 125 official delegates. The official business headquarters will be at the German hall, with sessions held also at the
K. of C. hall on Broadway.

Establish Parking Ground
Delegates and other visitors to the convention will be accommodated
during the two nights at private homes and hotels. Crowds during the Monday evening program will be much larger than during the day, it was announced today.
As several hundred previously expected during the day, have notified
the local committee that it would be impossible for them to arrive before evening, due to conflicting business. Due to this, the parade will be much smaller than previously predicted, but the participants will total more than 2,000, it was stated.

Through the efforts of Safety
Director Rex Ruggie, the Bliss company has given the city the use of the two vacant lots for parking purposes during the convention.

An effort will be made to have all cars parked there and four or five reliable men chosen by the society will be sworn in as special patrolmen, who will police the grounds.

HUNT SIX MEN FOR KIDNAPING

County Authorities Join
Youngstown Police In Rosenbaum Case

Youngstown, O., May 26.—While Prosecutor Ray L. Thomas and Mahoning County Detective W. J. Harrison have joined in the search for Beatrice Rosenbaum, 10, who disappeared from her home here 13
days ago, police today centered their investigation around the search for six men.

Five of the men, who authorities claim have been arrested for annoying young girls, were being sought in 40 cities where descriptive circulars of them have been sent by Police Chief J. J. McNicholas.

Thomas and Harrison conferred for several hours last night with Mr. and Mrs. Max B. Rosenbaum, parents of Beatrice. Thomas refused to make any statement after the conference.

Good Roads Bill Is Signed By Coolidge

Washington, May 26.—President
Coolidge today signed the $2,500,000 federal good roads bill. It carried $75,000,000 for aid to states in road building, and $7,500,000 for national forest roads and trails.

S. Butler (R) of Pennsylvania,

mittee, was in a critical condition
here today. Members of his family were at the bedside.

Rep. Butler has been ill for more than a month with a bronchial condition aggravated by heart trouble.

SQUIRE IS SUED BY EDITOR WHO WAS ARRESTED

Lewis Asks $1,025 Damages from Justice After Case Dismissal

Lancaster, Ohio, May 26.—William T. Lewis, editor of the Lancaster Daily Gazette, whose sentence of ten days in the county jail
and imposition of $10 fine and costs, meted out by Squire Boerstler, was dismissed by Judge Shell, today
filed a suit aggregating $1,025
against Judge Boerstler.

Alleging unlawful imprisonment
on a contempt of court charge and arrest on an unlawful warrant the case was placed in the hands of Thurman T. Courtwright, local attorney, who promptly started legal action in Fairfield county common pleas court. The suit asks damages of $1,000 and attorney's fees of $25.

The filing of the suit comes as an aftermath to the situation created when an editorial in the Gazette censured Boerstler for imposing a small fine upon a Columbus man who was alleged to have endangered
the life of a woman by tossing her from his speeding automobile onto the highway after an argument between the couple. A warrant for Lewis' arrest was sworn out and he was haled before Judge Boerstler, fined $10 and costs and sentenced to ten days in the county jail.

Lewis appealed the sentence and was released on a habeas corpus writ and the charges dismissed by Judge Shell, before whom the hearing was held. The editor served but two hours of his ten-day sentence.

The case, which has caused widespread discussing throughout the state, was further enlivened last night by an editorial, written by C.
J. Beach, owner and publisher of the Gazette.

The editorial expressed the opinion that "no man, who is hasty of temper or action, should be permitted to continue in a position of authority, where such warped judgment might again interfere with the fair and just administration of our laws."

YOUTH HAS HIS HAND SHOT OFF

Laverne Owen, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Owen, Salem, R. F. D., who had his right hand shot off in an accident Thursday and is at the Salem City hospital, is reported to be getting along well.

Young Owen was shooting crows
when the accident happened and was going through a fence.

Comb Burns Fatal

Tiffin, O., May 26.—Miss Evelyn Unser, 20, co-ed at Heidelberg college here, died today from burns

to curl her hair, exploded as she

Andrews held a conference with federal trade commission officials with a view toward the drafting of a code of business ethics for the industry. It was regarded likely by commission officials that a trade practice conference would be called and that the industry itself would draw up its code of ethics which

Posses Scour Hills For Killer Bandits

Finding of Body of Slain Doctor Causes
Countryside To Take To Arms Today

Dighton Kan., May 26.—Two hundred officers of Eastern Colorado and Western Kansas continued today on one of the largest manhunts
in the history of the plains country.

Along the Smoky Hill river two airplanes scoured the countryside, assisting forces on the ground who went about in automobiles, afoot
and horseback.

The posse searched for the four bandits who last Wednesday held up the First National bank at Lamar, Colo., killed the president and cashier and kidnaped a teller;
on Thursday night presumably killing Dr. William Wininger of Digh-ton, Kan., and eluding possesmen
along the Smoky Hill river.

Searchers today found Dr. Wininger's overcoat three miles from the spot where the physician's body was found Friday morning after he had answered an "accident call."

It was believed the bandit, who apparently was the one who received medical attention in Trinidad,
Colo., last Wednesday night, died,
and having no further use for the physician, the remaining bandits killed him.

Aviator Finds Body
The area over which the posse

are searching is rough ground similar to the Bad Lands country of the Northwest.

Possesmen from adjoining counties scattered throughout the area
after sun-up today, and posted guards at points where it was believed the bandits would pass in their efforts to escape.

One of the bandits signed himself
"Bill Hickok" in a note on the physician's body which was found by searchers yesterday.

"Oh you murdering doctor. Revenge is sweet," read the note, written on a cardboard, and pinned to the doctor's coat, the physician's body having been found thrown from a cliff. The doctor's body was still warm when an airplane landed near the spot where the body was found.

Citizens of Dighton are literally
"up in arms" today upon learning
the details of Dr. Wininger's abduction. The physician was last seen several hours before leaving on the errand of mercy after a telephone call from one of the bandits.

The large posse is under the direction of Sheriff A. E. Carey, of Greeley county. Sheriffs from Wichita, Kearney, Hamilton, Finney, Scott,
and Logan counties, are in the chase.

Travelers Install
Officers For Year

P. H. Mead was master of ceremonies when Salem council No. 590,
United Commercial Travelers of America, installed its officers for the ensuing year at a meeting Friday evening.

The officers are: Senior Counsellor, T. S. Gibbs, junior counselor, Lawrence Hinton; past counselor,
Herman Rothfuss; conductor, Carl Remmel; page, Herman Kniseley;
sentinel, E. H. Althouse; members of the executive committee for two years, C. W. Mead and S. R. Koenreich; chaplain, P. H. Mead; delegate to the grand lodge convention at Columbus, June 8 and 9, Mr.

later would be submitted to the commission for approval.

Importance of the rubber rehabilitation move is emphasized by the fact that United States consumes nearly 70 per cent of the world rubber production of 620,000 long tons annually. Rubber manufacturers have an output valued at over $1-250,000,000 a year.

"The plan is to eliminate all unfair and unethical practices in competition and distribution," Andrews explained. "Honesty literally is the best policy for business and such a policy will be set up in the rubber industry for the protection of man-

SHIP SEARCHING ARCTIC WASTES FOR THE ITALIA

City of Milan Leaves To Hunt For Trace Of Nobile and Crew

FUEL SUPPLY IS REPORTED AS LOW

Wild Storm Rages; Grave
Fears Are Felt For Balloon Today

Oslo, Norway, May 26.—The steamship City of Milan, mobile base of the Italian exploration balloon Italia, will leave King's Bay, Spitzbergen, this afternoon bound for South Cape in an effort to pick up the missing dirigible, said a message to the newspaper Aftenposten.

The message added that belief was growing at King's Bay that the Italia had been carried by wind towards the Siberian coast.

The Italian minister received instructions from Rome to request
Roald Amundsen, noted Norwegian polar explorer, to aid in the search for the Italia.

London, May 26.—With the dirigible Italia more than a full day overdue on its return flight from the North Pole to its base at King's Bay, Spitzbergen, grave fears were held today for the safety of General Umberto Nobile and his intrepid crew of sixteen.

A wild Arctic storm is raging over Spitzbergen. A terrific wind is becoming stronger every hour and dispatches from King's Bay indicate that even if the dirigible were in the vicinity of its base, there was small hope of its making a safe landing.

For hours not one wireless message from the ship has been received at the base. It was thought possible that to avoid the storm, General Nobile had decided to head for Vadse, Norway, where there is a mooring mast, instead of going to King's Bay.

However, this was considered unlikely in view of the last message received from the ship, which indicated that its fuel supply was running low and that it was attempting to buck headwinds using only three instead of four motors, to conserve fuel.

FALL OF PEKING NOW IMMINENT

Kalgan Falls to Hordes
From South; Assault
Capital Next

London, May 26.—The southern Chinese hordes have captured the city of Kalgan, 125 miles northwest of Peking, and have completely routed their northern foes, a dispatch from Peking received by the Daily Mail stated today.

The fall of Peking is imminent,
the dispatch indicated. The northerners are rapidly falling back towards the Chinese capital, which is practically surrounded by southern troops.

The last line of defense of the northerners in the vicinity of the Nankow Pass, has also given way to the onslaughts of the troops of the nationalist army, it is reported.

RESERVE PILOT DIES IN CRASH

Plane Topples Over Ten-
Foot Embankment As
He Makes Landing

Philadelphia, May 26.—James R.
Reid, reserve pilot on the New York
Atlanta air mail route, was killed
early today when his plane northbound from Richmond, Va., rolled over a 10-foot embankment and was wrecked while he was making a forced landing in a field near the Tappahannock rd. a few miles north of Richmond, Pitcairn aviation officials revealed.

Reid joined Pitcairn Aviation, Inc., operators of the mail route, a month ago coming from Chicago. He is believed to have no close relatives.

Reid was an experienced pilot being at one time chief pilot of the Pennsylvania Airways corporation.

Judge Riddle Refuses To Discuss Children's Home At Conference

Says Such Discussion At Carrollton Would Be
Out of Place

EXPECT MAYOR TO DISREGARD STAND

Officials At Odds Regarding Plans for County
Children's Home

"There will be no discussion at the district state Welfare conference at Carrollton, June 20, relative to the erection of a children's home,
for Columbiana county," declared Probate Judge Lodge Riddle, who has been named chairman for Columbiana county section of this conference today.

"The conference is for other purposes entirely, and other counties
that will have a part in the meeting
are Stark, Jefferson, Harrison, Mahoning, Tuscarawas and Carroll.
The thought of Columbiana county pulling away from Stark county in the joint maintenance of a children's home will be quite out of place at this gathering," Judge Riddle added.

The conference at Carrollton is being arranged by Miss Beatrice Minnich of state division of charities who at the meeting will be assisted by Belle Greve, division superintendent.

"Last year more than 10,000 children were taken from their homes and placed elsewhere," Miss Min-nich declared. "Delinquency among children in Ohio is growing rapidly.
Unhappy homes is the cause in the main, and the largest contributory factor in this situation."

Judge Riddle has been asked to head a committee to outline plans to get a large number of citizens of Columbiana county to attend this conference and he has asked the committee to meet with him at the courthouse in Lisbon 7 p. m. next Thursday. At this meeting the committee will have a definite outline of what the program at the conference will be.

Judge Riddle has asked the following Salem citizens to attend the meeting at Lisbon Tuesday evening:
Mrs. W. H. Dunn, Mrs. Myra B.
Woodruff, Rev. A. J. Manning, Supt.
of Schools J. S. Alan, Mayor Phil G.
Hiddleston and R. W. Hawley.

Mayor Phil Hiddleston recently announced that a discussion of the proposed change in the county's methods of caring for its wards and orphans would be held at the Carrollton conference.

It is probable that local plans for such discussion will not be halted
by the statement of Judge Riddle.

The mayor has received commendation from the state for his action in starting agitation for a new way to care for the county's wards, and he intends to proceed with plans for heading a delegation to the Carrollton meeting.

They were in the air 17 hours and durance record for flying with a load of 2,240 pounds. The former

BUSCHMANN GIRL, IN COMA, HAS IMPROVED

Painesville, May 26.—After spending four and one-half months in a tal, Helen Buschmann, 19, of Westfield, Mass., today was still in the institution, unconscious.

The young woman, a Lake Erie college student, was struck by a motor bus near here Jan. 15, last.
Her skull was fractured and an operation was performed immediately
afterward, during which bone particles pressed against the brain,
were removed by Dr. Claude Beck, noted Cleveland surgeon.

Miss Buschmann failed to regain consciousness and physicians have nounced that it has rescinded its or-

thorized the International City

sue and dispose of 10,000 shares

FINDING OF MAN IN MATHER MINE SPURS RESCUERS

John Wade, 38, Negro, In Hospital Recovering
After Six Days

Mather, Pa., May 26.—Spurred by the rescue of John Wade, 38, a negro, alive in the blast-wrecked
Mather Colliery here after six days of living death, rescue forces today scoured every recess of the mine in the faint hope that others of the 24 still missing may be found in the mine.

Wade, alive by a caprice of fate
after being numbered among the 106 victims of Saturday's explosion, was found, speechless, from exhaustion and terror, in a far corner of the mine, where eddying cross currents and fresh air had warded
off poison gas for six days.

Rushed to an emergency hospital,
he was found to have suffered little from his ordeal, and physicians said that if his weakened body is able to ward off pneumonia, he will soon be able to return to his wife and three children.

With all traces of gas driven from the mine the rescue teams began removing falls of slate and rock, in the hope that others of the still unaccounted for may have been able to find fresh air currents after Saturday's explosion. One other man was rescued alive after 60 hours in the mine.

Wade wandered among the bodies of the other victims, eating the food in their dinner buckets, and for the past few days apparently was in a state of coma—moving mechanically,
almost by miracle striking currents
of fresh air instead of gas which snuffed out the lives of the others.

caped injury.

BADLY BEATEN IN FIGHT LAST NIGHT ON HIGH

Fred Canny, Depot, St., Is In City Hospital In Critical Condition

NO CHARGE HAS YET BEEN MADE

Police Claim Ignac Kryk
Declared He Would
"Get" Canny

Fred Canny, 33, of 28 Depot st., is in a serious condition at the Salem City hospital and Theodore Kisko, Ignac Kryk and William Grich of Salem are being held in city jail as the result of a general fight which occurred about 9:45 p.
m. Friday at the home of Kisko, 535
East High st.

Canny had been staying temporarily at the Kisko home
and after having a few words with Kisko declared that he was going to leave. He took his suit cases out and put them in a car belonging to Ignac Kryk, 63 Perry st., and this started a quarrel. Kryk claims that Canny hit him first on the head with a board. It was reported that Kryk then went to the house to have the cut dressed and declared that he would "get Canny," which he did.

Canny was then carried out into a field near the home. From there he made his way to the home of H. H. Sharp, Highland ave., who called the Salem City hospital. He was covered with blood, and it was at first believed he would not recover.

The Salem police were then called and Patrolmen Gray, Reardon and Hiddleston responded.

Kryk went to his home on Perry st., and crawled into the dog box.
He was not found until about 2:30
a. m. Saturday, when he was taken to the city jail.

William Grich and Kisko are being held in jail for witnesses. No charges have yet been placed against the men pending the outcome of the injuries of Canny. A liquor charge may be placed later
in addition to the other charges.
Chief of Police T. W. Thompson said.

According to later word received from the hospital this afternoon the condition of Canny is just fair. It was not stated whether he has a chance to recover.

SCHLESINGER TO RESIGN POSITION

Director of Highways Is To Have Post With Brick Makers

Columbus, May 26.—George F.
Schlesinger, formerly of Xenia, and director of the state highway department, will resign from that position to accept a position with the National Paving Brick association at Washington, D. C., it was said at the state highway department here today.

Schlesinger's resignation is expected to be handed to Governor Donahue next week, it was said. As director of the highway department
he received $6,500 per year.

Howard J. Kirk, formerly of Defiance, will be named Schlesinger's successor. Kirk, who followed as director if Governor Donahue follows his usual method of promoting department executives, Schlesinger was appointed highway department
when chief engineer.

Kirk graduated from Defiance
college in 1911.

First public news of Schlesinger's intention to resign was made known at Toledo late yesterday evening and this morning it was verified by J. A.
Meckstroff, secretary to Governor Donahue, and by officials at the highway department.

ETHICS IN BUSINESS

It was announced the other day that a generous donation by the daughter of a widely known manufacturer will be used to establish in one of the larger American universities a chair of business ethics. This movement is not so much a reminder of the need for giving systematic instruction in commercial morality as it is a demonstration that the big men in the world of business, industry and finance, have discovered that the loftiest standards are fully justified by every consideration, not alone of expediency but also of good morals.

As time is measured in terms of human history, it has been only just a little while since barter and trade carried with them the rules of caveat emptor and general commercial piracy. Nowadays business is on a far higher plane. In practically every instance, reform has come from within. It has not depended much upon the energies of missionaries from without.

Today everywhere in the United States it is appreciated that trickery cannot be made to pay in the long run. Devious practices may be so directed as to yield a monetary and trifling advantage, but that advantage will be short-lived, and the methods which brought it to pass invariably react against whoever employs them.

Everybody who ever yielded to the temptation of unethical methods has, sooner or later, discovered that eventually the chickens of shady transactions come home to roost.

The system of commercial ethics, as it has been developed in recent years, is based upon the fact that there is mutuality of obligation in business. This mutuality makes it possible to declare that, although competition may be the life of commerce, there are limits within which it must be confined, if there is to be a preservation of the interests of all engaged in business.

Fair dealing, honest advertising, laws prohibiting adulteration, enforcement of contractual obligations, requirements that there be payment of debts up to the full capacity of the debtor—all these have been found, by careful trial, to be beneficial to communities as a whole, and so, as an inescapable result, to all the component individuals of these communities.

The task of the proposed department of business ethics herein mentioned, will be the systematization of a body of practice already generally adopted by American business men of the higher planes. It is not likely to disclose much really new material, since much of the ground it will cover is even now within the province of schools of commerce and business administration.

It will be a good thing if those in charge of the proposed new course will give emphasis to the historical aspects of the question, and to show what already has been accomplished—and why. If that course is pursued, no difficulty will attach to showing that the ethics of business, in the final analysis, are both morally pleasing and economically advantageous.

What Others Say

STILL AT IT

At a meeting held in Cassel, Germany, Communist delegates from 16 countries, including the United States, discussed ways and means to extend Communist activities in the so-called capitalist armies and navies. An individual named Rykoff, said to be a nephew of commissar for foreign affairs, attended as an emissary of the executive of the Moscow Red International.

At Rykoff's demand, the delegates reported on the state of revolutionary preparedness in their respective countries, particularly as regards the military forces. "Jack Wilson" one of the American agents present, had next to no cheerful information to give concerning the United States army, but in the navy progress had been made. While last year the Communists had only three "cells" among the navy personnel, today they have no fewer than ten. One of the British delegates said there were 13 "cells" in the British navy with two to be added soon. As for the French army, 14 "cells" were reported, with the assurance that the Red flag could be hoisted on at least ten French warships, if a crisis arose.

Rykoff was by no means satisfied. Here is Moscow trying its hardest to turn the capitalist world topsy-turvy, while its trusted servants are asleep on their jobs. What is the good of a few scattered "cells" in the navies when the armies remain unimpressed by the revolutionary germ? Rykoff raged and scolded. He told the delegates that Moscow expects the latter months of 1928 and the early months of 1929 to be a period of mutinies and seditions, possibly of great international conflicts. But the headquarters of the Red International cannot bring about the desired confusion single-handed.

Owing to vigilance by German authorities, the Cassel meeting is much less of a secret than its organizers had intended it to be. The governments concerned can not do less than take warning. Moscow continues to plot world-wide subversion with maniacal persistence. Its fury is largely pathological, but it is none the less dangerous on that account.—Detroit Free Press.

PRISONERS ON PAROLE

Men and women, on parole from state prisons, who commit felonies and receive new sentences in Ohio courts, must be returned to prison under the first sentence and serve the maximum term before they can begin the second sentence. That is what the state law provides, according to a ruling given by Atty. Gen. Edward C. Turner. There is no way provided by which the first sentence can be shortened or ended save by a pardon from the governor and the chance of securing that for a prisoner who would not observe the law when on parole and trusted by the state may not be considered good.

Here is an instance where the existing law is much stronger than had been known in the past, strong enough to attract the attention of men and women on parole and give them a new and powerful reason for observing right conduct. If its provisions are disregarded, then the foolish individual must carry the entire burden. The state had provided a minimum sentence, with possible parole, and, if both offerings are disregarded, then the prisoner must pay the price.

Ohio has been using the parole law for many years, has had about the same experiences other states have had, some astonishing failures, and many prisoners who did play square with the state and stay inside the law. No state can be expected to shower favors on and provide opportunities to prisoners, if the first consideration shown is thrown aside. The consequences of his part or take the consequences of his folly. That ruling by Atty. Gen. Turner means some prisoners in Ohio institutions are going to remain there for many years. They did not show themselves worthy of state confidence. They threw away a great opportunity.—Ohio State Journal.

The Stars Say—

For Sunday, May 27.

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE.

SUNDAY'S Horoscope shows active and thriving conditions for church, charity and for supporters in many lines. The tendency to despondency and the inclination to seek diversion in strange and illicit ways should be suppressed. Those whose birthday it is may have a year of business and financial progress despite some obstacles and delays. They should shun illicit acts, companions and extravagances. A child born on this day will be very sad and ambitious, but disappointment may incline it toward baleful consolations unless such proclivities be observed and properly directed early in life.

Every one conquered temptation represents a new fund of moral energy.—Buckham.

For Monday, May 28.

MONDAY'S astrological chart shows particularly active conditions, almost of a spectacular and whirlwind nature, but these may be turned into avenues of disaster if the element of tempest and turmoil be permitted to dominate affairs. With cool and temperate conduct many benefits and great personal satisfactions may be attained.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for a year of excellent, though possibly unexpected, benefits and opportunities if they will keep firm control and not be swept away by impulse and turbulence. These may reap loss and fraud as well as disaster.

Every trial endured and weathered in the right spirit makes a soul nobler and stronger than it was before.—Buckham.

ABUSE OF STOMACH CAUSE OF DILATION

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.
United States Senator from New York. Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.
If the organ is normal, the human stomach has a capacity of four or five pints. Under certain conditions it dilates so enormously as to have a capacity of 30 or 40 pints. There is one case on record where it reached 70 pints.

Continued poor health from any cause manifests itself by lack of resistance of the body tissues. Muscular tone is reduced. Elasticity is lost just as a rubber band loses its life and snap. Anything then, that results in impaired health, wasting of the tissues of the body and general lack of tone, may be followed by giving way of the tissues and stretching of the stomach walls.

Chronic inflammation of the lining of the stomach may prepare the way for this unpleasant condition. Such an inflammation is usually the result of overeating or overdrinking. Although not the only cause by any means. Beer drinking used to be a fruitful cause for dilation of the stomach.

There are cases of acute dilation, the result of a single indulgence in an enormous meal. It is much more common, of course, to find the dilation coming on gradually, the result of long continued overeating. There are cases where disease has obstructed the opening from the stomach into the intestine. As the growth or disease has progressed, the passageway has grown smaller and smaller. In consequence, the contents of the stomach have been dammed up and the walls of that organ have been more and more distended. In time, the elasticity of the stomach walls is lost and eventually the dilation is enormous.

The symptoms vary, but almost always there is dyspepsia, the patient complaining of discomfort in the stomach. In spite of this, however, he calls for food and never seems satisfied. He will eat till the stomach is filled and then he may vomit a great quantity of food and fluid. In some cases the amount expelled has been a full gallon. Vomiting is one of the most frequent symptoms of dilation.

One would expect the consumption of such enormous quantities of food to result in added flesh. As a matter of fact however, little of the food is absorbed and the patient grows more and more thin and scrawny. Constipation, dryness of the body, limited urinary secretion, and lack of strength are characteristic.

The treatment is not pleasant, but it is immediately effective. Washing out the stomach quickly relieves the trouble. This procedure is done once a day.

There must be strict regulation of the eating habits of the patient. Small quantities of food are given and the meals should be taken more frequently than are required by healthy persons. Starchy and fat foods are omitted. Sugar is taken in moderation. Liquids are cut down to the minimum.

Needless to say, fresh air, lots of sleep, and all the rules of simple living are indicated. Everything that builds up the general health will restore tone to the weak stomach walls.

With care of this sort recovery is to be expected.

CHURCHES

"THINK OF THIS"

Romans 12:1. "Present your bodies a living sacrifice." At a Christian celebration on the west coast of Africa, when natives brought small gifts to show their love to the Saviour, one young girl, only recently rescued from paganism, brought a coin worth 85 cents and handed it to the missionary.

He was astounded at the size of the gift and hesitated to accept it, thinking she must have stolen it. Delicately he asked where she got such a large sum and she explained that she had sold herself as a slave for the rest of her life for the coin.

Decidedly, she was wrong in thus selling herself; but was not her desire to bring her whole life as an offering to God beautiful?

Church of Our Saviour, 227 McKinley ave., Rev. Christian A. Roth, rector.

Services Sunday, May 27—Whitsunday. Celebration of the Holy Communion 7:30; church school 9:30; second celebration and sermon 11:00.

The lessons of Whitsunday are among the most precious in the long round of the Christian year. They all cluster around the person, mission and work of the Holy Spirit.

Whitsunday is the anniversary of the birthday of the Church of Christ. It was on the day of Pentecost that the Holy Spirit came in the fullness of His presence and power upon the waiting disciples of the Lord Jesus. Just as the pass-over was the birthday of Israel, so Pentecost marked the birth of a new era in the Church of God. It is the irrefragable proof that God himself is the author of Christianity.

The Church of Christ is a spiritual organization; its life is that of the spirit; its unity is due to the presence of the spirit; its power is all through the operation of the spirit. The members of the Church of Christ are all born of the spirit, live by the spirit, and walk in the spirit. The work of the church is all carried on in humble reliance upon the Holy Spirit Himself, who "fills the Church of God" and who makes use of the means of grace for the furtherance of His holy purposes of blessing.

Whitsunday leads us back to the first principles of the Christian religion. It shows us our true position in the church. It teaches us to lean only on the grace of Christ, and to save at every step and stage of life's pilgrimage. 'O! to grace how great a debtor, daily I'm constrained to be.' For it is grace from first to last. The Christian owes all to Christ, and it is the Holy Spirit who takes the things of Christ and brings them into personal relations with our lives.

And every virtue we possess, And every victory won, And every thought of holiness, Are His alone.

The Holy Spirit meets every need. This must be so, for He is not only divine but Deity. He is the Lord, the Life-Giver.

WILLYS-KNIGHT

GREAT SIX SEDAN $1995

More than ever
the leader in quality car values

Having long held front rank with America's most luxurious cars, the Willys-Knight Great Six is now advanced and perfected to a degree of superiority which few automobiles ever attain.

Low, sweeping lines are beautifully expressive of the most modern tendencies in body design. Perfect symmetry obtains throughout, from the tapering, aristocratic hood to the smoothly curving back. Many new colors offer a wide selection of exquisite blendings.

Interiors are spacious, luxuriously upholstered and tastefully appointed, embodying many exquisite refinements of detail which result in true distinction.

Drive the Great Six, and you will thrill to performance such as you have never known before—a smooth, unflinching flow of power, silently and effortlessly delivered.

High compression with any gas. Engine grows smoother with use

In the patented Willys-Knight engine, two sliding metal sleeves in each cylinder combine with the spherical cylinder head to form a perfectly sealed combustion chamber. This head directs the full force of the explosion straight downward against the piston, making the most efficient use of the highly compressed gas.

As a result, the Willys-Knight engine gives high uniform compression—maximum power with velvet smoothness—at all times, at all speeds and with any gas. And the Willys-Knight is the only type of automobile power plant that constantly keeps growing even smoother and quieter with use.

Willys-Knight Sixes from $995 to $2695. Prices f. o. b. factory and specifications subject to change without notice. Willys-Overland, Inc., Toledo, Ohio.

STANDARD SIX COACH $995

CURTIS STANDS BY PRESIDENT; FARM BILL DEAD

Issue Certain To Be Big One At Convention In Kansas City

SORE SPOTS LEFT BY SENATE VOTES

Both Parties Split Over Coolidge Veto Which Is Sustained

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
Washington, May 26.—Farm relief was dead as a congressional issue today—but in its death throes it apparently has achieved the immortality of becoming a burning political issue to confront, and possibly to confound, the Republicans who will meet in Kansas City two weeks hence to nominate a presidential ticket.

There was little doubt but that farm relief would be a paramount issue at Kansas City after President Coolidge's caustic and stinging veto of the McNary-Haugen bill.

There was none at all today after the senate had sustained his veto only by reason of the flip-flopping of votes. The veto and the vote on sustaining it left sore spots on the Republican side that will be a long time healing.

The vote was 50 to 31. Four senators, Curtis (R) of Kansas; Sackett (R) of Kentucky; Waterman (R) of Colorado, and Fletcher (D) of Florida, changed their votes and by this narrow margin enabled President Coolidge to emerge a victor in his biggest clash with the senate. Had these votes, originally recorded for the bill, stood fast on the veto question the McNary-Haugen bill would have been passed by the necessary two-thirds, and Mr. Coolidge would have been signally defeated again by the senate on a legislative question.

Explains His Stand
Curtis is a candidate for the Republican nomination. He is also credited with being an aspirant for the vice presidential nomination. He is now in the position of being recorded on both sides of the McNary-Haugen issue, having voted originally for the bill, and then voting to sustain the veto. He thus becomes what the cynical and practical politicians in Washington call "available" as a compromise candidate for either nomination at Kansas City.

The situation was so tense politically that Curtis felt called upon to explain his vote, as follows:

"I have always favored farm relief legislation as shown by my vote for every farm relief measure voted on in congress since the war, and by my action in offering two carefully prepared measures which would have given relief had they been adopted. Much as I sympathize with the farmers and as much as I favor legislative relief for them, as Republican leader of the senate on this vote I felt it my duty to stand by the president."

Eighteen other Republicans, among them numerous vice presidential aspirants, felt the same urge and voted to sustain the veto. They include Edge (R) of New Jersey; Moses of New Hampshire; Borah of Idaho; Fess of Ohio; the Kansas City keynoter, while Goff of West Virginia, was paired to sustain.

Democrats Split
Twenty Republicans forsook the White House, among them being Curtis' colleague, Senator Carper of Kansas; Senator Watson of Indiana, and Senator Norris of Nebraska, were the only Republican presidential aspirants recorded against Mr. Coolidge.

The Democrats split 29-11 in favor of over-riding the veto. Presidential candidates of the Democratic side were split, too, as Walsh of Montana, voted to sustain the veto, while George of Georgia, voted to override.

None of the four senators who changed their votes are up for re-election this year. None save Curtis gave any explanation of their reasons for switching.

The fight over the agricultural plank at Kansas City promises to be a bitter one, comparable perhaps to the fight over the prohibition plank by the Democrats at Houston. The McNary-Haugenites, counseled and advised by two such outstanding Republicans as Vice President Dawes and ex-Gov. Frank O. Lowden are going to Kansas City, determined that if they lose their fight against Hoover it will be only at the price of hammering into the platform an Agrarian plank that Mr. Hoover will be uncomfortable standing upon.

Establishment of the rubber institute is regarded as another evidence of the new trend of business thought wherein competing corporations are cooperating to promote their common interests rather than engaging in destructive competitive wars.

It is generally conceded that a single corporation is no longer able to stand alone without recognition of the rights of other producers in the same industry and the public. Andrews said.

The institute will seek to discipline its own members who engage in unfair practices such as are held in violation of the law by the federal trade commission, adopting the principles laid down by the recent national meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce for self-regulation of industry and commerce to avoid federal interference.

Annulment Spiked

Rumors which were abroad regarding Queen Victoria of Spain, above, were effectually killed by the Vatican. It was rumored that King Alfonso was seeking an annulment, but the Vatican authorities decreed that the marriage of sovereigns was surrounded by such well known guarantees that it was almost impossible to find faults which would make annulment feasible.

AUTO SHEIKS IN PITTSBURGH TO LOSE LICENSES

Girls Note Numbers And Police Get Busy When Boys Drive Around

Pittsburgh May 26.—The "sidewalk sheiks" are demanding their rights. Scouting injustice in the plan of action against them recently announced by Pittsburgh authorities and expected to be adopted in other large cities, the nomads of the asphalt, who mounted in the family automobile rather than on the family camel, cruise the city streets in search of the "fair Sheiks" are raising their wails to Allah.

No burly police will be used in their drive, the authorities declare, not even policemen to set traps for the unwary. It is through the girls upon which the asphalt Arab's police would work his downfall and it is on this point that complaint has arisen.

The new system is simplicity itself. A car drives up besides a group of girls and remarks appropriate to the occasion are passed. The boys in the car insist, the girls on the curb desist. Finally the automobile drives off, but as it goes one of the girls carefully notes the license number on a pad carried in her purse for the purpose.

Girls Report
Stepping into a nearby drugstore she calls police headquarters. Automobile license records are scanned and in a few minutes one of the city's 14 outlying police stations is given orders for the arrest of the offender, who has now become a name rather than a license number.

A motorcycle policeman drives up besides the Sheikh's caravan with the well-known "Pull over, buddy." As the last act in the drama, the car driver finds himself booked under a suspicious person charge. Perhaps in default of $1,000 bail he spends the night in jail.

At least, he appears in morals court the following day and if a summary conviction results, things happen just what authorities have not said. Efforts will be made to have offenders' driver's licenses revoked.

But the "pick-up experts," while admitting that the theory is beautiful point out that the practice is likely to be fraught with dangers.

Girls Get Even
It will provide excellent opportunities for angry "girl friends" to "get even," they assert, since all that will be necessary will be merely to turn in the license number of the victim's car and let the police do the rest. Regardless of whether he is convicted, embarrassment and inconvenience are sure to result and the wounded feelings will be soothed.

And the girls? Here opinion differs. Some adjust their spectacles, brush an imaginary speck of dust from their severe but substantial suits and remark that "it will serve the curb lizards right." Others merely glance at the interviewer in a knowing way and remark that after all there are "some nice boys that do things like that and it would be a shame to arrest them just because some girl didn't like them."

EASIER MONEY MARKET HALTS STOCK BREAKS

BY W. S. COUSENS

New York, May 26.—An easier trend in the money market, as expressed in the slightly lower outside rates for call money and a $40,000,000 decrease in brokers' loans, arrested a rapidly developing downward movement in stock prices this week and checked what appeared to be a bad break in the market favorites.

Aggressive efforts of the bullish leaders in Wall Street to prevent a decline in prices at this time were reflected in the violent upward bidding of the motor, airplane, radio and specialty stocks of all kinds, after a severe drop in the fore part of the week.

Traders and commission houses were sorely dissatisfied with the four hour day, and the governors of the exchange promptly rescinded their action of a week previous, restoring the 3 o'clock closing beginning next Monday.

Lacking any semblance of organized support, and without the usual volume of buying demand from the western sections of the country the market drifted to a lower level of values in the first two sessions of the week.

Heavy offerings of the motor stocks and specialties helped along the bearish efforts for lower prices and the losses in the airplane and other fast-moving shares extended from five to fifteen points. But the market's technical position was improved in the process and when the bulls asserted themselves in the bulls scattered like chaff and prices jumped riotously.

Industrial Reports Favorable
The industrial reports of the week were generally favorable. Steel production is well maintained, copper prices have reached a new peak for the year at 14 1/2 cents a pound, automobile manufacturing are pushed to the limit and April building contracts showed the largest monthly total in history.

On the eve of the largest and most important gasoline consuming season of the year, crude oil production has shown a distinctly declining tendency, while prices for crude and refined oil have gradually stiffened. If this process continues it will enable the big oil companies to work out of the most embarrassing situation they have faced in a decade, in which huge losses in net earnings rose from the uncontrolled over production of crude oil from newly discovered fields.

Special strength and activity was in evidence in the motor stocks this week, with Studebaker the aggressive leader of the low-priced motor group. Studebaker was whipped along to the highest price on record for the stock in its present form, on the basis that the price of the stock has never fully reflected the large income in the equities in the company in recent years and was therefore very much out of line with other motor stock.

Confirmation of Col. Lindbergh's affiliation with the newly organized Transcontinental Air Line stimulated active buying of the airplane stocks, but demand for the stocks was not too keen at the comparative high price now prevailing, even though they show a shrinkage of about 6 points from the peak.

The railroad declined sharply at the first of the week, but the volume of transactions at the low prices was comparatively small, and recoveries at the week-end and sharp and decisive. The railroad merger has been somewhat clouded by the recent decisions of the commerce commission.

EXCHANGE CLOSED

New York, May 26.—For the sixth time this year, the New York stock exchange and curb market observe special Saturday closing today to permit clerical and office workers to bring their record up to date.

All commodity markets are open as usual, with the exception of the cocoa exchange, which has voted to close on Saturdays through June, July and August. The banks and clearing houses remain open.

Beginning Monday the stock exchange will resume the five-hour day, closing at 3 p. m. Governors of the exchange, in their official statement, announced that this week's four-hour sessions had provided the relief asked for by the big commission houses.

Total Received

Out of 28 head of Guernsey cattle sold on consignment at Wooster Thursday, the majority from the Columbiana county home herd, there was a sales return of $4,000.

Although 26 head listed for this sale were from the county home herd, those with calf by their side were sold separately and one calf went as high as $60.

While the top sale of $300 was for Fairy of Pleasant Valley, No. 184929, a sale at $280 for Dictator's Narcissus, No. 243341 was the highest any listing from the county home herd brought.

G. Forest Mason of Lisbon had four listings at this sale, while W. F. Stooksberry of Elkton, had seven of that herd listed. Three had been listed by W. S. McBane of East Liverpool and one by Seth Morris of Elkton.

This is the first time that cattle from the county home herd were ever entered at a sale in such large number, according to Supt. John P. Neill.

J. Howard Sinclair of Hanoverton and P. W. Andrews of New Philadelphia, were auctioneers, while Harry C. McCamon of Lisbon, was manager of the sale.

Some of the reasons for the organization follow:
"To pay particular attention to the first amendment, and to make all possible effort to keep it from falling into the same disrepute as the eighteenth amendment."

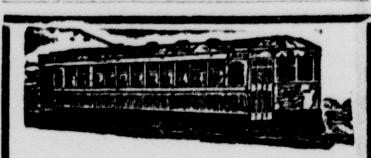

"To conduct scientific experiments, emotional or intellectual, in order to discover the perfect type of 100 per cent Americanism and to define once and for all status form, the distinction between true and false patriotism."

"To oppose, by calm methods, all forms of public hysteria, acknowledging the right of any single individual to carry out his own hysteria in his own way."

"To carry to the four corners of the earth, the slogan: Red but not dictated."

Cincinnati—Robert Dawson, 39, Civil war veteran, was denied a divorce in domestic relations court from Mrs. Eliza Dewitt Dawson, 60, now living in Pittsburgh. He charged desertion. They were married on April 6, 1906, and separated in September, 1924.

JOINT BILL IS BARBERS' PLAN

Placate Beauty Experts
So That Legislature
Will Adopt Rules

Columbus, May 26.—Discussion of measures to consolidate the beauty culturists and the barbers throughout Ohio preparatory to legislative action to protect their respective trades, will take place at the state convention of barbers and beauty culturists to be held here June 17 and 18, at which between 400 and 500 persons representing every county in Ohio are scheduled to attend, according to announcement at the chamber of commerce here.

An attempt to introduce a "barber's bill" was made at the last session of the Ohio legislature but was unsuccessful in its passage.

The defeated bill provided that no person could practice barbering without a regular certificate by a board of state examiners, and that no apprentice could assist in a barber shop without the issuance of an apprentice permit by the same board. The bill further provided that it would be unlawful to operate a barber shop unless a "certified barber" was in charge.

Creation of the state board was also included by the bill. Three members appointed by the governor were to serve. Each member, the bill stated, must be a practical barber and must have practiced barbering for at least five years succeeding his appointment. The salary of each member was to be three thousand dollars a year and traveling expenses.

A certificate fee, totaling $12 for each certificate issued would make the board self sustaining, an official at the Chamber of Commerce stated.

It was through the efforts of the beauty culturists that this bill was defeated at the last session of the legislature, reports stated. The beauty tradesmen charged that it provided no measures for their protection. Another objection raised was that the board of examiners did not include a member of their own profession.

Modification of the bill, so that it would meet with both the desires of the beauty culturists and the barbers is sought. It is with this in mind that the convention is scheduled to be held.

LITTY AND SEEDS FAIL TO QUALIFY IN THE HURDLES

Preliminary Heats Friday Afternoon Are Run In Time Too Fast for Salem Boys;
Vault, Javelin, 880 Are Today

Only two preliminary events were held Friday afternoon in the state meet at Columbus in which Salem athletes competed. Both proved disastrous to Salem's chances for points in the hurdle races, as Salem's crack hurdlers, Arnold Seeds and Herman Littly failed in the struggle for survival in this afternoon's competition in the finals.

Littly entered both the 220-yard low hurdles and the 120-yard high, but failed to finish among the qualifiers in either event. Seeds, competing in only the low, was also eliminated from that event.

Three heats were run in each event from each heat qualifying for this afternoon's finals. Littly, from Columbus East, Haeffle, Lakewood, and Black of Lima Central won the heats in the high hurdle, the time in each being 16.2 seconds. This proved much too fast for Littly, whose best time all year was 17 flat.

In the low hurdles, Keller again won his heat, Bexter, Toledo Scott, and Parrish, Shaker Heights winning the others. Their respective times were: Bexter, 26.5 seconds; Parrish, 26.6; and Keller, 27.1 seconds.

The state records in these events are not endangered, according to these marks, the high hurdle mark being 15.8 and the low hurdle record 25.4 seconds.

Finals in all other events will be held this afternoon. The pole vault with Captain Keith Roessler and Lowell Allen, Salem's two champion pole vaulters, upon whom the eyes of the entire audience of spectators will be focused due to their past records, was to be held at 2 p. m., giving Salem people time to get there and view the local phenoms in action.

Ted Van Campen will compete in the half-mile run and Joe Pasco the javelin throw, the only other Salemites in the competition.

Class "B" finals were run off this morning, and class "A" this afternoon.

MAY KEEP OHIO SCHOOL COACHES OFF THE FIELD

Columbus, May 26 — When the Ohio State High School Athletic association meets at Cedar Point June 27, one of the principal speakers will be Frederick E. Rogers, New York state director of physical education, and his subject will be "Returning the Game to Its Original Owner."

Without an explanation of the subject, one might think it pertained to almost anything but what it really does. It is an idea to allow the players of high school teams to do their own playing and thinking while on the field and keep the coaches away from the teams after an athletic contest starts.

This plan has been worked out very successfully in New York state for the past year and it would not be surprising to see the Ohio association adopt a similar plan after hearing Rogers' discussion of it.

5 HOMERS RUIN MACKS' CHANCES

Yanks Hit Them Out Of
The Lot to Cop Game;
Cleveland Wins

New York, May 26 — Willie Keeler's famous slogan—"hit 'em where they ain't"—is passe these days. The New York Yankees have a better one—"hit 'em out of the lot."

Five home runs by the Yanks—two by Ruth, two by Dugan and one by Gehrig—beat the Philadelphia Athletics twice yesterday 4 to 2 and 9 to 2—and ruined the Mackmen's only opportunity to gain ground on the leaders in the present series.

The A's, now trailing by 5½ games, must take the remaining two games to get an even break on the series.

Ruth now has 16 homers to Gehrig's eight. It was a banner day for the home run hitters, the day's total being 13. Incidentally, 129 have been made in each league.

Phil Todd, of the Boston Red Sox, got his fourth homer in as many days as the Sox whitewashed the Senators, 5 to 0, and moved back into the first division. Ruffing was the winning pitcher.

Homers by Bressler and Hendrick of the Brooklyn Robins ruined Rogers Hornsby's debut as manager of the Braves, who lost by a score of 4 to 1. Lefty Clark, the blushing bridegroom, turned in his sixth victory.

Homers by Ed Roush and Master Melvin Ott, each with a man on base, enable the Giants to snatch a 4 to 3 verdict over the Phillies. Vic Aldridge hurled his first triumph as a New Yorker.

George Kelly's home run featured Cincinnati's 2 to 0 victory over the Cardinals. Red Lucas handed the Cards their first coat of kalsmine since 1927 and snapped their winning streak of four games.

The Reds are one full game in front of the Cubs, who regained second place from the Cardinals by slaughtering the Pirates, 10 to 3, for their first victory on Forbes field this season. The Cubs had lost four straight.

A home run by Pinch Hitter George Burns started Cleveland on the road to an 8 to 4 win over the St. Louis Browns, who slipped back into the second division.

Detroit and Chicago are staging their own private fight—a battle for sixth place. The Sox eased themselves into the sixth slot yesterday when the veteran Red Faber won a nifty 1 to 0 duel from Holloway. Each hurler yielded only five hits.

LOANS up to $500

SALEM TO MEET
HAMMOND HIGH
IN WIRE EVENT

Salem High school will participate in a unique track and field meet, Monday and Tuesday, when a "telegraphic" meet will be held at Reilly field with Hammond, (Ind.) High, coached by Louis Moorehead, former Ohio State star.

It will be the first time in the history of High school athletics that such a meet will be held, each school competing on its own field, and telegraphing its results to the other after the end of each event.

This meet will end Salem High's regular track season. Part of the track team will, however, compete in the national meet at Chicago, Saturday, to officially end the season.

"To oppose, by calm methods, all forms of public hysteria, acknowledging the right of any single individual to carry out his own hysteria in his own way."

"To carry to the four corners of the earth, the slogan: Red but not dictated."

JOINT BILL IS BARBERS' PLAN

Placate Beauty Experts
So That Legislature
Will Adopt Rules

Columbus, May 26.—Discussion of measures to consolidate the beauty culturists and the barbers throughout Ohio preparatory to legislative action to protect their respective trades, will take place at the state convention of barbers and beauty culturists to be held here June 17 and 18, at which between 400 and 500 persons representing every county in Ohio are scheduled to attend, according to announcement at the chamber of commerce here.

An attempt to introduce a "barber's bill" was made at the last session of the Ohio legislature but was unsuccessful in its passage.

The defeated bill provided that no person could practice barbering without a regular certificate by a board of state examiners, and that no apprentice could assist in a barber shop without the issuance of an apprentice permit by the same board. The bill further provided that it would be unlawful to operate a barber shop unless a "certified barber" was in charge.

Creation of the state board was also included by the bill. Three members appointed by the governor were to serve. Each member the bill stated, must be a practical barber and must have practiced barbering for at least five years succeeding his appointment. The salary of each member was to be three thousand dollars a year and traveling expenses.

A certificate fee, totaling $12 for each certificate issued would make the board self sustaining, an official at the Chamber of Commerce stated.

It was through the efforts of the beauty culturists that this bill was defeated at the last session of the legislature, reports stated. The beauty tradesmen charged that it provided no measures for their protection. Another objection raised was that the board of examiners did not include a member of their own profession.

Modification of the bill, so that it would meet with both the desires of the beauty culturists and the barbers is sought. It is with this in mind that the convention is scheduled to be held.

ORDINANCE NO. 280320-A
An ordinance providing for the issuance of bonds of the City of Salem, for the purpose of acquiring and purchasing a triple combination pumper truck, for the use of the Fire Department of said city.

Whereas, this council has requested the City Auditor to issue her certificate as to the estimated life of the property, asset or improvement proposed to be acquired or constructed from the proceeds of the bonds hereinafter referred to, and the City Auditor has certified to this council such estimated life at five years, and has further certified the maximum maturity of such bonds as ten years.

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the Council of the City of Salem, Ohio:

Section 1. That it is deemed necessary to issue bonds of the City of Salem, in the principal sum of $13,721.00 in order to provide a fund for the purpose of acquiring and purchasing a triple combination pumper truck for the use of the Fire Department, of said City, and to provide a fund for the payment of not to exceed one year's interest on said bonds.

Section 2. That bonds of the City of Salem, shall be issued in the principal sum of $13,721.00 for the purpose aforesaid. Each of said bonds shall be in the denomination of $1,500.00, each, except bond number one which shall be of the denomination of $1,721.00, and bonds numbers three, six and ten, which shall be in the denomination of $1,000.00, and said bonds shall be dated April 1st, 1928, and shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of April and October, of each year, until the principal sum is paid.

When said bonds are issued, they shall be sold bearing a different rate of interest than hereinbefore specified, such bonds shall bear such rate of interest as may be provided for by the resolution of council approving the award thereof. Said bonds shall mature as follows:

One bond on October 1st, in 1928, of the years from 1929, to 1938, both inclusive, which maturities are hereby determined to be in substantially equal annual installments.

The principal and interest of all of said bonds shall be payable at the office of the City Treasurer in the City of Salem, State of Ohio.

Section 3. That said bonds shall be issued in pursuance of this ordinance and shall be signed by the mayor and auditor, and sealed with the corporate seal of said city. The interest coupons attached to said bonds shall bear the signature of the City Auditor. Said bonds shall be numbered consecutively from one to ten.

Section 4. ROCKEFELLER'S COAL COMPANY CLOSING MINES

Take Forward Step Toward Economic Basis For the Industry

New York, May 26.—What coal men describe as "a pioneer step" in solving conditions of overproduction, price cutting and other evils of the bituminous industry, has been taken by the Consolidation Coal company of which John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is a heavy stockholder.

He owns 71 per cent of the preferred stock, 27 per cent of the common. The newly elected president of the company, George J. Anderson, recently sent an announcement of policy to other coal producers and it was announced today, a wide response has been received from the industry, many other operators indicating their intention to follow it.

Wages should not be cut, nor prices either, and some of the less efficient mines should be closed, in Anderson's opinion. His communication to the industry said in part:

"The consolidation Coal company believes that the present plight of the bituminous coal industry will not be remedied by forcing unwanted coal upon an unwilling market. It sees no relief, either to the industry or to any producing company by cutting prices below a level that permits a mine to remain in production with its natural overhead unabsorbed in its average realization."

Put on Economical Basis
"The Consolidation Coal company believes that no present useful purpose nor any contribution to future stability is to be gained by further cutting wages below a sound economic level. Whatever may be the temporary relation of labor cost to selling prices. It holds that the primary object of both mine labor and mine management must be the most regular work-time possible under a proper wage base."

"Holding, as it does, these beliefs, the company is attempting to bring both its marketing and operating policies into line with what it conceives to be a constructive economic basis to that end it is closing for an indefinite period some of the less efficient mines, and consequently must dispense with a considerable number of valued and loyal employees."

It is understood that ten mines are being shut down, four in the Somerset coal fields of Pennsylvania and six in the Fairmont field, West Virginia. The Consolidation Coal company operates in four principal coal regions, in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky and Maryland.

Anderson's statement was addressed "to our fellow coal producers who believe with us that efficient men should be retained in the industry and inefficient mines should be eliminated from production."

WHEN the smooth salesman of an unproved investment scheme calls on you, do not be carried away by his glittering promises. It is a good plan to write down the name of his project, his own name and address, the percentage of the dividends he prophesies, and then say, "I will talk these matters over with my banker."

Generally, the interview will come to a sudden close and you will watch a sad-faced schemer depart.
